BAY STATE GREENBACKERS

Quite a Fformy Session of the State Convention.

An Independent Ticket Nominated-Some Curious Inconsistencies Manifested.

Messachusetts Greenbuckers' Convention. Woncester, Mass., Sept. 22.—The greenback convention which was held in Horticultural bail to-day consisted of about 200 delegates, among whom was one woman. The convention was called to order by Davis J. King, chairman of the state central committee, who announced the temporary organization as agreed upon by the state central committee, and which appointed John Howes of Worcester for precident. Committees on cre-dentials and permanent organization were ap-pointed. The committee on credentials re-ported that 272 cities and towns were repreported that 272 cities and towns were represented by 354 delegates. The report was kept senied by 354 delegates. The report was kept open for revision, as it was announced that a curring on the ticket be filled by gentlemen not candidates on any other ticket. Passed

The committee on permanent organization reported for president Charles H. Litchman of SENATOR CONKLING'S PROGRAMME. Marbichead. Mr. P. O'Neil Larkin of Boston Dates and Places for His Speeches in Indiana a place on the platform, for the reason that hed spoken. He read the remarks of Dwight at Richmond, Ind., October 4; at Lafscyctic Fester at Fascuil hallon Saturday night, to the effect that if the United States could not compete with the Chiuses, let them go to the wall. The reading was received with derision the remarking to be fixed. From about the and hisses. During the cell for a nomination at large to the state central committee, the name of George C. Van Benthuysen of Botton, from the fourth congressional district, called forth a long and normonious debate as to the feating dained that he was a true greenbacker, and would vote for Weaver, notwithstanding his vote for Mayor Frince last year. This sentiment of the meeting as expressed in this debate, was everwhelmingly opposed to anything like fusion. A motion to refer the matter to the central committee was defeated by a large vote. The name of Mr. Van Benthuy-

An erroneous impression prevails, to which a panagraph in yesterday's "Personais" might give color, that Mr. W. J. Vancel's forthcoming book. "Princes' Favors; a Story of Love, War and Politics," is a story of Washington life. Some of the scenes are laid in the national capital—more, pullars, than in any other single locality—but the book does not profess to give a view of Washington life. Political manipulations, etc., to creasally cater into the work. Because necessary to the story, but the work, because necessary to the story, but the story is not tool to introduce them.
